BOOK YOUR NEXT EVENT AT HIGHWAY 99 BLUES CLUB

At Highway 99, we are committed to telling the story of the blues and southern culture, from the vibrant juke joints of the South to the legendary electric blues clubs of Chicago. We tell that story not only through the extraordinary music pouring from the stage, but with the delectable cuisine steaming from our kitchen, the refreshing libations flowing from the bar, and the memorable artwork hanging on the walls.

Whether you're planning a company outing, meeting, convention, fundraiser, family reunion, wedding reception, birthday or holiday party, our combination of scrumptious cuisine, unique atmosphere, and unrivaled Southern hospitality is our recipe for your good time.

We can accommodate your every need :

"The time is ripe for dinner and entertainment. Could it get any better? It can and it did. New Orleans-style food, billiards, sizzling music in this funky subterranean setup built to resemble a juke joint."
- Nancy Leson, Seattle Times Restaurant Critic

We are located on the beautiful Seattle waterfront, directly across the street from Pier 59 and the Aquarium, under the Viaduct, at the bottom of the Pike Place Market stair climb.
